

SECURITY FORUM 2014: 1914 Legacies
Geneva, 2 May 2014

Welcome and introduction to the 8th edition of the SECURITY FORUM

Workshop 1: World War and World Peace
0900-1015

1. Jubin Goodarzi, Assistant Professor, International Relations Department, Webster University Geneva. "The Middle East during the World War."
2. Hervé de Weck,* Vice President, Revue militaire suisse (RMS). "Switzerland in World War I."
3. Caroline Varin, Visiting Lecturer, Regent's University London. "The War inside the War: The Balkans."
4. Gyula Csurgai, Academic Director, School for International Training (SIT). "Geopolitical Projects and Consequences of the Versailles-Trianon Treaties."
Discussion: "On the origins of the Great War."

Workshop 2: Technological Progress and Tactical Regressions
1030-1200

5. Jean-Pierre Barras, President, Société genevoise des troupes de DCA. "1914-1918: The First 3D War."
6. Julien Grand, Assistant Editor, Revue militaire suisse (RMS). "The Conquest of the Air."
7. Alexandre Vautravers, Associate Professor, International Relations Department, Webster University Geneva. "Landships: Naval Warfare on Land."
8. Kim Nielsen, President, Webster Humanitarian Association. "Ypres: The First Use of Chemical Weapons during the First World War."
9. Norberto Birchler,* President, Association romande des intermédiaires financiers (ARIF), "From disaster to Victory, from Caporetto to Vittorio Veneto: The three battles of the Monte Grappa."
Discussion: "The Nature of World War I."

1200-1300 Lunch Break

Workshop 3: Humanitarian Action in World War I
1315-1530

10. Otto Hieronymi, Professor, International Relations Department, Webster University Geneva. "Values and Interests: The Futility of World War I."
11. Elodie Tranchez, Lecturer, International Relations Department, Webster University Geneva. "The Impact of the War on the Implementation of Treaties."
12. Amanda Nelson, MA IR student, Webster University Geneva, "The Lusitania Incident."
13. François Rubio, Legal Director, Médecins du monde, Paris. "WWI and the Role of Philanthropy."
14. Oreste Foppiani,* Head, International Relations Department, Webster University Geneva. "The Role of the ICRC in WWI."
15. Michel Veuthey,* Vice-President, International Institute of Humanitarian Law, Associate Professor, Institute of International Law. "The Geneva Conventions and World War I."
Discussion: "The Legacy of the First World War."

1600-1630 Concluding Comments

* Some speakers will present a paper for the publication of the proceedings, but will not be able to be present on 2 May in Geneva.